

ART HISTORY

FREE EXTENDED PROJECT QUALIFICATION (EPQ) COURSE taught alongside A level Art History modules for state school students on term-time Saturday mornings or afternoons at the Courtauld Institute Somerset House or online

A hybrid and 'in real life' course, with classes at The Courtauld Institute, Somerset House, The Strand, WC2R 0RN and at other museums and galleries as appropriate to the syllabus. However, our courses can be taken by students from anywhere across the UK – our hybrid options can be attended in person in a dedicated teaching space, or online.

APPLY NOW!

Deadline: Friday 6th September 5pm

Apply via the QR code or link below-
<https://arthistorylinkup.org/apply/student-application/students@arthistorylinkup.org>

- Complete an EPQ (up to half an A Level in UCAS points) supported by our team and expert mentors
- Option to continue to study a further two modules in a second year and sit the A Level Art History exam
- Careers mentoring, and alumni network membership with ongoing opportunities after graduation
- Teaching by a team of experts and at first hand in the gallery and classroom

From 28th September 2024 – July 2025